2016 Fall Enrollment & Back to School Rally

Lexington Chinese School, a non-profit organization that has been serving Fayette and the surrounding counties since 1995, is accepting enrollment for 2016 fall semester. LCS is currently offering 17 classes. The classes are designed for Chinese and non-Chinese speaking families with students ranging from age 4 to adult. LCS has the most experienced, professionally trained, and state certified Chinese teachers including Kentucky Outstanding Chinese Award winners, lead Chinese teachers of Fayette County Public Schools. Most teachers have dedicated themselves to teaching at LCS for over 5 years. LCS is offering Back to School Rally to provide school information you may need (school programs, culture activities demo, meet with teachers, etc.). We look forward to serving your Chinese language and culture learning needs.
